Your Vote Your Voice
November 6, 2018
How Do They Affect Me?

Pennsylvania Governor
Approves or vetoes laws passed by the state legislature which is part of the checks and balances of government.

Pennsylvania Lieutenant Governor
Becomes Governor in the event that the Governor dies or is unable to continue his duties.

Proposes a state budget which reflects his priorities for the economy and education.

Presides over the State Senate and supports the Governor's policies.

U.S. Senator
U.S. Representative
Passes laws that affect the economic status of citizens such as minimum wage and equal pay for equal work.

Passes laws that affect air and water quality, adequate roads and bridges, and the rights of citizens.

State Senator
State Representative
Passes laws and budgets that affect security, health, and available government services.

Passes state budget that affects local and school taxes and community services.

AAUW
empowering women since 1881

LWV

Founded by THE BUCKS COUNTY WOMEN'S FUND
a strategic affiliate of A WOMAN'S PLACE